Mr. William Colby
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C.

Dear Bill,

Thank you very much for talking with me about the intelligence community and for giving me your concepts of the NIO's and the ICS. I also appreciated your arranging for me to see George Carver and General Graham, both of whom were most helpful in discussing their work.

When the draft of the textbook on the intelligence community is completed I will provide you a copy and will be most receptive to any comments or criticism which you or your staff wish to provide. In that connection, I plan to come to Washington the week of July 8, and I am hopeful that I will be able to see the heads of the USIB agencies or their designees so that I may insure that each view is given proper consideration.

With very best wishes for continued success in your heavy responsibilities.

Sincerely yours,

Lyman B. Kirkpatrick, Jr.
